

Help Someone who has Carpal Tunnel Syndrome (CTS)!

You may have Carpal Tunnel Syndrome (CTS) if you have one or more of the following: tingling and numbness on the hand, fingers and wrist; pain so intense that it wakes you up at night; and similar symptoms in the upper arm, elbow, shoulder, or neck.

Millions of people suffer from CTS and increasingly they are finding relief through Chiropractic care. Anyone suffering from CTS should see a Chiropractor to ensure that their spinal column is free from nerve pressure between the arms, wrists and nerves in the neck.
